

Hub International Southwest Insurance partners with Philadelphia Insurance Companies to provide specialized insurance products tailored to FSPA member's insurance needs

Philadelphia Insurance Companies, established in 1962 is nationally recognized as a premier niche underwriter. With field offices strategically placed throughout the nation they are able to provide unparalleled products and service to local policyholders. The Company's two insurance subsidiaries are pooled for risk assumption and accumulated surplus. A.M Best Company has assigned the insurance subsidiaries an "A+" (Superior) rating. Philadelphia Insurance Companies is recognized as a member of Ward's Top 50 Benchmark group of Property/Casualty insurance companies for outstanding achievement in the area of financial strength, claims performance, and consistently favorable underwriting results.

One of Philadelphia's areas of expertise is security services. Operations covered in this segment include alarm monitoring, alarm installation, armored car service, night watchman and office security. Philadelphia has competitive and comprehensive insurance products for all lines of insurance related to this industry. To learn more about these products please visit <http://www.phly.com/products/SecurityServices.aspx> .

Please contact George Patton, Hub International Southwest's account manager for FSPA at 800.800.5661 ext. 4137 or by email, george.patton@hubinternational.com. Please refer to the August newsletter for more information on FSPA's relationship with HUB International SW Insurance.